SIX ELECTRIC LIGHT MASTS TO BE ERECTED.

This splendid tract of land, taking in Eleventh and Twelfth streets, and extending from Main to San Pedro streets, in the very heart of the FINEST IMPROVEMENTS IN LOS ANGELES!

is now offered to the public by the owner, Mr. Childs, on terms that must command its immediate sale and improvement. Nearly every lot is

Covered With Orange and Lemon Trees,

ENGLISH WALNUTS, and vines of choicest varieties, all of over twenty years' growth. A lot on this tract needs but a cottage to form at once a beautiful home with charming grounds and improvements ready for occupancy. You are invited to view on Twelfth street, the residences of several citizens already erected on this tract. Many of these lots on Main street have been held by Mr. Childs at $1,500 to $2,500 each. Lots on Los Angeles street have been held at $1,000 to $1,200 each. There is not a lot on the tract that is not

Worth the Subscription Price of SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS,

THE TITLE IS PERFECT.

Streets are being opened and six masts with electric lights will be erected immediately. The division of the lots takes place in six months, at which time the purchasers meet together and choose a committee of three disinterested citizens and a recording secretary, the names of the purchasers being placed promiscuously in a hat. As each name is withdrawn by one of the committee the purchaser, or his or her representative, in turn, immediately makes a choice of one lot on the large map exhibited, and that choice, being recorded by the secretary of the meeting, is unchangeable, and will receive a deed for the same direct from Mr. Childs. This is on the plan of the best homestead associations of other cities.

THE EXTREMELY LOW PRICE

At which these central lots have been placed justifies the belief that even the least valuable one in the whole tract will be

Worth $1,000 Within the Time for Full Payment,

While others will more than quadruple the present very low rate. Lithographic maps of the 200 lots, streets, location of electric light masts, etc., are now ready at agency. As this enterprise is not a money-making one, but believed to be a great public good, aiding in the wonderful progress of our city, the books of subscription will not be placed in a real estate agency, but will be opened on Wednesday, November 26, at 10 O'Clock, A. M.

WASHINGTON.

Proceedings of the Senate and House Yesterday.

OPPONENTS OF SILVER GET A BACKSET.

The House Passes the Bill to Make a Department of Agriculture—Opening of the Exposition.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Dec 15.

Mr. Logan presented a large number of petitions from tobacco and cigar manufacturers and labor organizations of Illinois, New York, and other States, protesting against the ratification of the Spanish treaty.

The Chair laid before the Senate Mr. Van Wyck's resolution, heretofore offered, relating to the Spanish treaty, and requiring the Committee on Rules to report a rule providing for the consideration of commercial treaties in open session.

Mr. Miller of California said this matter was under consideration by the Committee on Foreign Relations, and moved the reference of the resolution to that committee, which was agreed to.

The Chair appointed a committee of fourteen, including Dolph, Miller of California and Slater, to attend the Executive mansion to-morrow and participate in the ceremony of opening the New Orleans Exposition.

The Oregon Central Land Forfeiture bill was made the special order for next Thursday.

Miller of New York reported favorably from the Committee on Foreign Affairs the bill to authorize the President to accept invitations from foreign governments to international expositions and appoint commissioners thereto and appropriating $25,000 to be at the disposition of the President to cover the necessary disbursements in such cases.

The Senate then adjourned.

House of Representatives.

Mr. Lacey, from the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill prohibiting the issue of Treasury notes of less denomination than $5, and providing for the issue of $1, $2 and $5 silver certificates.

Mr. Cassidy said the effect of the bill would be to place an additional amount of silver certificates in circulation, leaving the metal to accumulate in the Treasury and furnish an argument to be used by the opponents to silver to show that silver will not circulate among the people.

The motion to suspend the rules was lost—yeas 49, nays 216.

The Speaker appointed a committee of one from each State and Territory to be present at the Executive Mansion to witness the opening of the New Orleans Exposition. The committee includes Messrs. Henley of California, Cassidy of Nevada and Cluey of Arizona.

Mr. Aiken, from the Committee on Agriculture, moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill to establish a Department of Agriculture.

Messrs. Blount, Potter and Brown of Indiana spoke in opposition to the motion, which was advocated by Messrs. Wilson of Iowa, Aiken, Budd, Hardeman and Cox of New York.

The motion to suspend the rules was agreed to—yeas 156, nays 69.

The House then adjourned.

CAPITAL CLEANINGS.

General Hazen Prefers Charges Against Lieut. Garlington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—General Hazen, Chief Signal Officer, has preferred charges against Lieutenant Garlington for disobedience to orders and neglect of duty in connection with his command of the Proteus expedition for the relief of Greely. The charges were sent to the Secretary of War over a week ago with a letter asking him to order a court for their trial, but no action has yet been taken by Mr. Lincoln, nor has he yet decided whether he will order the court or not. Lieutenant Garlington arrived in this city to-night. On his arrival here he said he was not aware of any charges having been preferred against him.

WHAT MAY BE DUE TO WITH IT?

Representative Randall, chairman of the Appropriations Committee of the House, has received a letter from W. W. Ker, who was one of the counsel in the Star Route cases, with reference to the proposition before Congress to appropriate some money to pay the damages awarded by the courts to Hallet Kilbourn in his suit against John G. Thompson, ex-Sergeant-at-Arms of the House for illegal imprisonment on an order of the House. It is said that in this letter Ker asserts that in each of the three trials of this case the juries were fixed. Randall refuses to make public the contents of the letter or to state what disposition he has made of it.

PROTECTION OF FORESTS.

Senator Miller, of New York, introduced a bill for the protection of forests on the public domain, which provides, among other things, that the reserved lands of the United States, embracing natural forests and all public lands returned by the public surveyors as timber lands, shall be withdrawn from survey, sale or disposal under the existing law, and that a commissioner be appointed by the President to examine and classify the timber lands and determine what portion shall be permanently reserved. A fine of not more than $1000 and imprisonment of not more than one year is provided for any vessel owner or agent or agent of any railroad company who knowingly receives for transportation any timber product taken from the timber land of the United States, and in addition thereto the confiscation of the vessel in which the timber is transported.

HOWGATE'S WITHERADOUTS.

Lieutenant Greely, the Arctic explorer, recently received a letter from Captain Howgate, the fugitive signal service officer, asking for the loan of money. On receipt of the communication he placed the matter before Secretary Lincoln, and officers have been sent to Nebraska, where it is thought Howgate is secreted, to arrest him.

CAPTAIN PYM'S PROJECTS.

A Railroad in Hudson Bay and the Nicaragua Canal.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Captain Bedford Pym of the Royal navy, and lately a member of Parliament for Gravesend, is in the city, having returned from looking over the cattle ranches of the West. He has on foot a plan for building a railroad from Cheyenne, Wyo., to Hudson Bay, for the transportation of cattle to England instead of bringing them to Chicago and thence shipping them East. The road will cost about ten millions and he wants the United States to subscribe one and one-half per cent. of that amount, and England a like sum. The remainder, he claims, can be placed on the London Stock Exchange in a few days. Pym has been in correspondence with the Washington authorities concerning the Nicaragua canal. The United States has recently secured a contract for this canal from Nicaragua, and the estimated cost is forty millions. Pym says one hundred millions will not do it. He wants the United States and Great Britian each to subscribe one and one-half per cent. of two millions and says he can raise the remainder in London. He says of the Hudson Bay road, that for Texas cattle it will save one thousand miles by land and five hundred by water. He goes to Toronto to consult Sir John MacDonald and will also call on President-elect Cleveland to suggest the appointment of a preliminary commission to consider terms for joint action between England and the United States on the Nicaragua canal project.

A Denial From Blaine.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The Tribune tomorrow will say editorially: "Mr. Blaine desires to have it stated that all the reports of interviews held with him, since his arrival in Washington, are entirely unauthorized. The one in which he is represented as discussing his relations with Mr. Conkling has been extensively published throughout the country, but is from beginning to end an inexcusable forgery. Mr. Blaine asks that his friends do the favor to discredit utterly any and all expressions in the form of interviews which may be imputed to him. If he has any occasion to communicate with the public he will do so over his own signature."

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Mayor Edson sent to-day to the Board of Aldermen the nomination of Fitz-John Porter for Commissioner of Public Works, and Morgan J. O'Brien for Corporation Counsel. Both nominations were laid on the table.

A SENSELESS HOAX.

The Excitement Caused by a Sensational Canard.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15.—The Alta published this morning an article which has created a most profound sensation. As was remarked by a gentleman referring to it, "It has turned the town upside down." The article in question is head-lined as follows: "Piracy—Honolulu Captured and Sacked by an Armed Force—The King, Public Treasury, and Merchants Despoiled—Over Three Millions in Coin and Plate Carried Off—Capture of the Palace—The Town in Possession of the Pirates for Nine Hours—No Attempt at Resistance—Bishop's Bank Plundered—Escape of the Pilibusters Next Morning —Probabilities that a Pursuing Vessel will be at once Dispatched from this Port." The article occupies two columns. It was written evidently by some one familiar with Honolulu and the interiors of the palace and other buildings mentioned, and presented with such an accuracy of detail as to readily deceive even the most intelligent reader. But the Alta explains the whole thing in an editorial note published in the same edition, which reads as follows: "The narrative on the first page shows what might be accomplished in the Hawaiian Kingdom by a small body of desperadoes." H. W. Severance, Hawaiian Consul in this city, in a note this morning addressed to the Associated Press says that the statements contained in the article have no foundation whatever, and several of the leading merchants largely interested in the Hawaiian trade pronounce them a pure fabrication. The excitement it created was so great that several passengers who were to sail this morning on the Alameda for Honolulu decided not to go, but when it was explained to them that the article was nothing more than a well written bit of romance they went on board. General Turnbull, manager of the Alta, stated this morning that the article was written with the direct purpose of showing how easily such an event could have occurred, and in this way to point out to the Hawaiian Government the necessity of taking such measures and creating such defenses as would prevent the possibility of such an occurrence.

BISMARCK BEATEN.

The Chancellor Sustains a Decided Defeat in the German Parliament.

BERLIN, Dec. 15.—A motion was carried in the Reichstag to-day increasing the salaries of two officials in the Chancellory. A motion was also made to create a second Directorship in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, which met with considerable opposition. In the course of the debate Bismarck spoke in justification of its passage. He reminded the house that he was compelled in 1877 to ask to be relieved of his functions because of over-work and ill health. He said he could only be able to continue in office by a law providing him with a substitute. If the house refused to grant the means with which to provide a substitute with suitable compensation, he must decline to be responsible for the foreign policy. When he declared on his oath that the new post was necessary, the refusal of the house to establish it was a virtual declaration that he was either ignorant or incapable. "After I have sacrificed my health and my strength," he said, "in the service of the Emperor and the Fatherland, don't refuse me what is necessary to the best interests of the service." The remark, continuing his speech, severely rebuked the house for refusing to prevent him from continuing his policy. He said the threatened action of the house would make mobilization unnecessary even after the millions that had been spent thereon. He gave his official assurance that his present staff was inadequate, adding that a refusal to comply with his request would only embitter his life. Vollmar insinuated that official oaths were worthless, as already proven in the law cases. The statement excited great uproar, and protests and calls for order were made. Bismarck declined to accept such treatment, and claimed that he should be treated with the decency prevailing in educated society. The motion to create a second directorship was then put to a vote and lost. The vote stood 119 yeas to 141 nays.

BAYARD'S CHOICE.

The Delaware Senator Seeking the Treasury.

ALBANY, Dec. 15.—Lieutenant-Governor Campbell, Judge Lindley, John G. Prather, member of the Democratic National Committee, John I. Martin, the Cleveland electors, and John G. Priest, of the National Advisory Committee, all of Missouri, called on Governor Cleveland this afternoon to suggest the name of James O. Broadhead of St. Louis, for Attorney-General of the United States. The gentlemen afterward made a tour of the capital. When Senator Bayard came to Albany and paid his respects to President-elect Cleveland, it is understood he left for home with the assurance that he could make a choice of any position in the Cabinet, and he would receive the appointment. It is said, on good authority, that after having duly deliberated over the matter the Delaware Senator sent a note to the Governor, which was received yesterday, indicating his preference for the portfolio of Secretary of the Treasury. It is rumored that he will be accordingly appointed.

A Pedagogue's Pistol Practice.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 15.—The Courier-Journal's Horse Cave special says: P. J. Slocum, a school teacher, incurred the ill-will of some of the community and received some anonymous letters lately suggesting that if he didn't leave town he would be waited on. He did not leave. Saturday night a mob of twenty men surrounded his house. He fired several shots at the crowd and succeeded in driving them away. Wayne Crain was killed and Joe Long wounded. Several other men and a number of horses are supposed to be wounded. Slocum is being tried at Munfordsville for killing Crain.

The Chronicle's Quartet.

The San Francisco Chronicle of the 13th contains an editorial headed "Is it a Quartet?" in which it makes a deliberate attempt to show that Senator John F. Miller, of this State, is acting in the interest of Claus Spreckels in securing the ratification by the Senate of the new Hawaiian treaty, and therefore against the true interests of the people. It is well known that Senator Miller is chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, the most important committee of that body, and it is equally well known that he has discharged the duties of that high position with ability and fidelity, and has thereby reflected great credit upon the people of his adopted State. That a Senator from far off California should in his first term be advanced to the highest honors of the most distinguished deliberative body in the world except that of President pro tem. of that body is something that should make every citizen of the Golden State proud and happy. Our pride is justified and our satisfaction deepened by the admitted fact that the man so chosen and promoted has shown such signal ability in that high position as to win the applause of the best brains of the East. The course of the Chronicle in attempting to make Senator Miller the champion of an unpopular and grinding corporation can be explained only on the hypothesis that that paper has gone anti-monopoly mad. In the same article it drives at the merchants of San Francisco, virtually charging them with being silent and unprotesting parties to transactions by which they themselves are wronged and defrauded. The great merchants of San Francisco have created San Francisco, and have in a large measure created the Chronicle as well, and it is a conclusive proof that that journal is striking wild, and without regard to consequences, when it charges the very men who have built the beautiful city on the bay with conspiring to its ruin. The merchants of the metropolis of the coast are not to blame, now that they have been supplanted in the south by those of our own city, for not being willing to be forced into a blind crusade against the very lines of transportation that make any trade of theirs possible. Their sound and conservative action is to be commended, and the TIMES will not be silent when their natural defender leaves them without a champion. In the same remarkable article the Chronicle does not forget to strike a blow at its favorite enemy Hon. A. A. Sargent, charging him with being in sympathy with Senator Miller, which if true would only show that both gentlemen are in good company. But it will not succeed in convincing the people of this State that either of them would become a party to a transaction by which the interests of the people are to be sacrificed.

As a newspaper, the San Francisco Chronicle is the admiration of the press of the coast. Its great enterprise, its courage, its thrift, and its accomplished corps of editors and reporters from John P. Young down command the entire respect of the craft, but there are some things that even the Chronicle cannot do. It may advise, warn, or even threaten, but it can never command the people of California. A great journal in sympathy with the foremost thought of the day, with its finger on the popular pulse leads the way and becomes a power, but let it attempt to coerce rather than convince and the people cast it aside without a thought or a care. The Chronicle will never be able to lead the press of this State in a crusade against Senator Miller or any of our public men who have deserved well of us in the past. It is entitled to great weight in the counsels of the Republican party, for instance, but it cannot expect to dictate the party's action or, failing which, to confidently announce its ruin and defeat.

Our Orphans.

A really benevolent spirit can always find ways and means for expressing itself. It is a spirit that we should strive to cultivate, not only in our own lives, but in the hearts of our children. Lessons of self-denial for the good of others are among the earliest lessons that we should impress upon our children. A habit of benevolence may be cultivated even among those who do not possess native generosity. Natural selfishness may be curbed and checked through a system of wise and judicious training and practice until it shall be no longer an active principle. To give is one of the grandest privileges of life, and to no individual does a larger share of happiness fall than to the generous giver.

Among the varied objects which appeal to our benevolence there are none that plead more powerfully for sympathy than the cause of the orphan. Thrown helpless and homeless upon the great world, humanity demands that we come to their help. They are ours to care for and ours to aid. It is an obligation which society cannot shirk and be true to its trust. Children who have happy homes should be taught to express their thankfulness by little gifts of sacrifice—not simply by giving that which costs them nothing, but by giving also when giving includes some self-denial. And parents should give, too, with a feeling of thankfulness that their children are not orphans, that Providence has spared them to care for and train their little ones, guarded by their love, and directed by their counsels in the safe shelter of happy homes. The world is a cold place for the homeless, for the little children who know neither a father's nor a mother's love. Los Angeles has built a home for such, but it needs enlarging. She will not fail as the opportunity is offered her this week, in her duty to the orphan. Let her benevolence be commensurate with the needs of these helpless little children.

WASHINGTON CITY is looking forward to a brilliant winter of social gayety. In many respects our national capital is apeing the ways of the capitol cities of aristocratic governments. Republican simplicity in the matter of entertainments and general style of living is a thing of the past at the seat of the national government. More than ever will this be true as the "season" closes this year at Washington. After twenty-four years of waiting the Democratic party is not going to be chary of expense in the inauguration of its just elected President. It will be as splendid a carnival as money can make it. There will doubtless be a larger element of southern aristocracy at Washington during the winter than there has been at any time since the "late unpleasantness," and the southern heart will revel in its restoration to the high places in social and political life at the Capitol of the Nation.

HENDRICKS has not yet learned the value of the adage which informs us that "silence is golden." It would be for the interest of his party if they would donate him a good stout muzzle and compel him to wear it.

FRESH LITERATURE.

Romana. By Helen Jackson. Roberts Brothers, Boston.

Romana is a delightful story of Spanish days in California.

It is laid in the beginning of the decadence of the power of the church in this State, when the wealth and influence of the Old Missions had begun to wane, and the incoming tide of American civilization was beginning to be felt in the gradual decay of priestly rule and ecclesiastical power. It is a charming portrayal of the habits of Spanish life and the customs and condition of the country in those days of romantic interest. It is like an open door into the past through which we enter into a vanished civilization, participating in the daily life of the people, their labors, customs, pleasures and sad forebodings. It is a picture of life so well drawn that the reader seems to be living it as he reads, and is not content to lay it down until the story is finished.

THE OVERLAND is steadily building up a reputation that will lead to its general recognition among the best magazines of the country. It represents the distinctive literature of this coast, a literature as full of breezy freshness as the airs that sweep over our mountains and seas. The December number presents its readers with the following attractive table of contents:

Two seaports of New Spain, Edwards Beach; Pioneers of Oregon, S. A. Clarke; On the Edge of a New Land—XII., Ada Langworthy Collier; Lazy Letters from Law Latitudes, Charles Warren Stoddard; A Catastrophe in Bohemia, Henry S. Brooks; The Building of a State—Local Government in the Mines, Charles Howard Shinn; Two Voices, The Shadows and the Bells, Fannie M. P. Deas; Morning on the Mountains, Clinton Scollard; The Future of the Republic, W. C. Blackwood; A Panama Riot, Carrie Stevens Walter; Manana Amanenra Dios, H. G. Dulog; The Late War in South America, W. Holger Birkedal; The Department. He contains its usual variety, and the various book reviews will be of interest to many readers.

O. W. CHILDS' TRACT.

Opinions of the Press Upon the Enterprise.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

Opening of the O. W. Childs Tract.

From the Los Angeles Daily Times, Nov. 25.]

An important improvement and enterprise will be commenced in a few days on South Main street. The O. W. Childs tract, comprising six blocks lying between Main and San Pedro streets, is to be subdivided and placed on the market in lots. These lots, varied at the uniform rate of $200, are to be sold on a plan by which the buyer of a lot pays $50 at the time of purchase, and $10 thereafter for twenty-two months, at the end of which time, or before, he pays up in full and receives a deed for his lot. The position of his lot is determined by chance, the matter being arranged by a committee selected by the shareholders, each shareholder having an equal opportunity at the expiration of six months, at which time the drawing for division takes place. The tract is to have new streets opened through it as speedily as possible, and every block will be lighted by an electric mast. The land is covered with fine deciduous and semi-tropical trees, and the property is considered among the most valuable outside the business portion of the town. There are many fine houses now on the tract. Water and sewer pipes will be put in at once. The proprietor will spare no expense to make the enterprise a success. It is almost certain the lots will double in value wi hin a year. The subscription books are to be opened this week. J. M. Duncan & Co., of the Diamond House, will act as agents.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

The O. W. Childs Tract to be Divided and Placed on the Market.

From the Los Angeles Evening Express, Dec. 4.]

The O. W. Childs tract, which comprises six complete blocks and portions of twelve others, commencing at Main street, opposite the residence of O. W. Childs, and running back to San Pedro street, and now covered with orange trees and vines from fifteen to twenty years of age, is about to be divided into 300 building lots and disposed of in a manner that is sure to greatly improve that locality. Portion of our city and enhance its value. The plan upon which these valuable lots will be sold is this: Subscription will be received at the uniform price of $200 per lot. At a certain time, to be fixed in the future, after these lots have been disposed of, a meeting of the subscribers will take place, their names will be written on slips of paper, and drawn from a box by some disinterested witness, and each subscriber will name his lot on the map as it is drawn. It is beyond question that some of these lots, more particularly those on corners, as well as those fronting on Main street, are worth two or three times $200, and it is thought that all of them are worth at least that amount. The payments are made so easy that anyone with a situation will be able to meet them, the first being $50 and the balance at the rate of $25 per month. Six electric lights are to be erected on the tract at once. The disposal of so many splendid building locations in this manner will doubtless stimulate building in that section to a marked degree. A more detailed announcement of the plan will appear in the advertising columns of the Express next week. Messrs. J. M. Puncan & Co. will be the agents for Mr. Childs in obtaining the subscriptions.

New Homestead Enterprise.

From the Los Angeles Daily Herald, Nov. 22.]

One of the most feasible and at the same time one of the most practical and attractive homestead schemes that has ever been inaugurated in Southern California, is about to be started, and will be fully explained in a few days in the advertising columns of the Herald. It consists in the division of the celebrated Childs tract, lying between South Main and San Pedro streets. This beautiful tract of well-matured citrus trees and vines has been laid out into 300 lots, with streets and alleys, which will be put onto the market at the nominal price of $200 per lot, payable in easy installments. Some of the lots to-day are worth $400 each, while none of them are worth less than the uniform price asked. At the end of six months the purchasers choose a number and draw by lot for choice of lots, so there will be an equal chance for each purchaser to get the valuable lots already built upon. Six electric light masts will be erected on the tract at once, which will illuminate the tract brilliantly and make it, with the beautiful orange grove, one of the most attractive residence localities in the city. The facilities for access, drainage, sewerage and water supply are of the highest order. To the fortunate many of our merchants, profe sional and business men have already selected homesteads on lots adjoining this beautiful tract and built up elegant homes will make this one of the choicest locations in the city. J. M. Duncan & Co., of the Diamond House, are agents for this new homestead tract, and will be prepared to put them on the market in a few days. This homestead enterprise will revive the building boom in the residence portion of the city, and no doubt be a great success.
